LANCASTER SCHOOL of the BIBLE

PRESENTS

THE 1961 ICHTHUS

Pearl Warner, Editor-in-chief

The word Ichthus is the transliteration into English of the word for fish and became one of the earliest Christian symbols. During the era of the persecution of Christians, its use enabled Christians to have fellowship one with another without exposing their lives to danger.

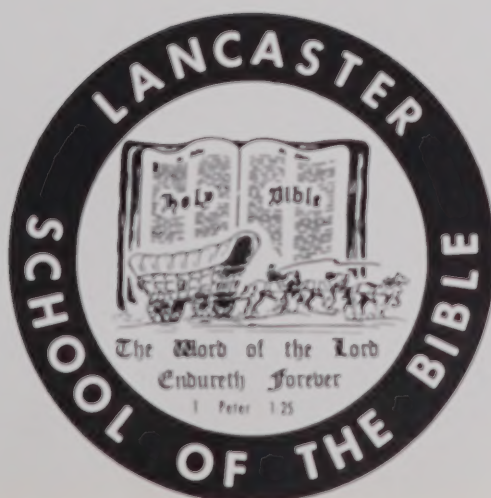

The reason for this symbol was because the word Ichthus comes from the acrostic of the Greek words, Iesous Christos THEou, HUios, Soter. Thus each letter in the word fish was the abbreviation for "Jesus Christ, God's Son, our Savior."

DEDICATED TO

DEAN STUART E. LEASE

President Crummett

1900 III

To Stuart E. Lease, "Dean" to a vast family of students in school and in many parts of the world, whose helpful encouragement, solicitous care, and gentle patience have brought us through the years of study and training to the moment of graduation, we of the class of '61 acknowledge our debt of gratitude.

Dean Lease has always manifested a deep and fruitful interest in the young lives entrusted to him for training. We believe that we have been in his constant prayers, that our faults, failures, and mistakes have been a burden to him, but also that our victories, successes, and growth in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ have been a sweet joy to his spirit.

His kindnesses have been undeserved, but out of a great heart of love for his Lord Jesus Christ, he has revealed to us a Christ-like character of sweetness and patience that has been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement. By precept and example, by exhortation and instruction, he has taught us prayerfully to read and study the sacred Word, unreservedly to love the Lord Jesus Christ, and wholly to believe the promises of God. A gifted teacher in the precious things of Christ, he has planted in our hearts a zest for Bible study which is constantly bringing us to sit at the feet of our Lord Jesus Christ Who Himself is the Great Teacher.

We thank our heavenly Father for having brought us to Lancaster School of the Bible where it has been our choice privilege to sit under the gifted teaching of this ideal Christian gentleman and kindly, experienced friend.

With gratitude for his patience and co-operation in the hours spent together in happy fellowship and study, to Stuart E. Lease, our "Dean" and instructor in the Word, we affectionately dedicate this Annual Ichthus.

PRESIDENT'S

MESSAGE

William J. Randolph

"Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called...separated unto the Gospel of God..."

Dear Graduating Class:

The time has now come for you to begin making your contribution to the growth of the Christian Church which has been purchased by the blood of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. The prospect is a delightful one. However, I hasten to assure you that the task will not be an easy one. You will not find the world waiting with open arms to receive you. Other than those immediately around you, few will be concerned that God has something to say through you. You are to be assured that although you are graduating your study has not come to an end. You must keep abreast of the theological problems of your day as well as the trends and shifting standards of the society in which you live. You must constantly search the Word of God for the answers. You will find other philosophies will be more popular than the one you preach based upon the Word of God. There will even be times when you like Elijah shall feel all alone and wonder what effect you can have being but one among so many.

No, the calling which you have answered will not be an easy one. The difference of your happiness and success in your ministry and that of failure and discouragement will depend largely upon whether or not you have chosen the ministry or whether God has chosen you for the ministry.

If you serve because He has called you, you cannot fail.

If then He has chosen you, put your hand to the plow and do not turn back. Do not let the discouragement of "I am but one among so many" be your lot. Rather determine, "I am but one, but by God's grace I shall be that one to the very fullest of God's enablement." Then God will bless you in your ministry and the results will be in His hand for "God giveth the increase."

May God bless you and your ministry as you "lay hold of that for which you have been laid hold upon."

Sincerely yours in Christ,

William J. Randolph

DEAN'S

MESSAGE

Stuart E. Lease

To the Class of 1961:

Dear Graduates,

I am sure that as you reflect upon your life as a Christian and especially as you re-evaluate the years of your training here at L. S. B. you view them with mixed emotions.

On the one hand there is undoubtedly a sense of gratitude and praise for that which the Lord has been able to accomplish in your life. The truths you have learned from God's Word and the invaluable experience you have gained through the application of these truths to your life have caused you to progress somewhat higher on the upward way. The Lord has certainly demonstrated his goodness and faithfulness to you. He is worthy of your constant praise.

But on the other hand as you look back and honestly realize that God could have done infinitely more in your life if you had let Him, there arises a sense of sorrowful regret. The Lord could say to you as he said to Jerusalem in Matthew 23:37, "How often would I...and ye would not!" How often we have turned aside from a difficult situation which the Lord had planned for our benefit. How often we have turned to our own feeble resources only to find defeat when we might have turned to an all-sufficient Saviour and found glorious victory.

I trust that as we consider our past experience we shall be utterly overwhelmed by and unalterably committed to the convicting fact that Christ stated when He said, "Apart from me ye can do nothing," and then be encouragingly challenged by Paul's words when He said, "I can do all things in Him that strengtheneth me." Apart from Him-nothing; in Him-all things! The choice is yours!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Stuart E. Lease

We, the members of the Senior Class, can truly say that the Lord has been faithful to us in all things. We committed our lives to Him at the beginning of our studies here, and He has been our refuge and strength through these years and has brought us to this place, still able to say, "We know whom we have believed and are persuaded that He is able to continue keeping that which we give to him, until the day shall dawn when we will be with Him."

Until that day our prayer is that we may grow to be more like Christ, being conformed to His image.

CLASS WILL

The class of 1961 makes the following bequests:

Henry Bernhardt's big car to any student with a paint sprayer and enough money to keep gas in the tank.

John Berry's theology to any Christian who doesn't want to be a Calvinist or an Arminian.

Ted Haas' ears to Mr. Latham, so he won't have to buy hearing aid batteries.

Ron Hartman's steak shop job to anyone who can look onions in the eye all night.

Shirley Keach's trouble with Logic to any girl who would rather have a husband than brains.

Joe Mollick's quiet voice to any sleepy congregation.

Neil Peppler's daily drive from York to Bill McCleary.

Bob Phillip's weight to Roger Wenger and any other undernourished student.

Margaret Uhler's soberness to any carefree Freshman who hasn't yet experienced Rev. Mark's grading.

The entire class also bequeaths to the underclassmen their overdue bills and Mr. Barnes.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

As we project our thoughts into the future and try to visualize what it holds for us, we must really use our imaginations.

The class of 1971 gave President and Mrs. Randolph a special gift - a trip around the world to visit the alumni of the school. When they returned home, they reported on what they found. Parts of that report are herewith reproduced:

Lancaster: Wednesday morning

Today we visited Ron Hartman in "Hartman's Hangout." The steaks taste the same as the ones did at "Speeds" ten years ago. I guess he got the recipe from Speed....

York: Wednesday afternoon

After visiting the other graduates in the Lancaster area, we went to York to see Neil Pepler. He has just sold his house and has bought a trailer. He and his wife plan to travel through the New England states on an evangelistic mission....

Brazil, South America: Thursday morning

Brother! these jets surely do travel fast now-a-days. It's cold up in these Andes Mountains, but Ted and Gracie Haas, their two sets of twins, and Susie Simca seem to thrive on the weather. Their work here among these Indians is thriving too....

Columbia, South America: Friday afternoon

This afternoon we sat in on a logic class taught by Henry Bernhardt, who is now the President of Bagota School of the Bible. I didn't realize he learned so much in my logic class. His Wife was there at the annual too. She's the secretary to the Dean....

Alaska: Wednesday morning

This first week of our trip has really gone fast. There were a lot of LSB graduates to visit in South and Central America. Now, here we are in Alaska. There's plenty of snow here, reminds me of the winter of 1961 in Lancaster. When we arrived here, Bob was playing with his own little Eskimos, showing them how to feed whale blubber to snowmen. His Alaskan Congregation has been growing in numbers the past few years and now totals about 300....

Paris, France: Tuesday evening

Another week is almost gone. Here in France, we attended an evangelistic meeting. John Berry gave the main message. I couldn't understand a word he said although he evidently spoke fluently in French. John and Nancy have been traveling through France the past five years, ministering to many people in such evangelistic meetings....

Bangor, Maine: Wednesday morning

We caught a few winks of sleep as we crossed the Atlantic last night and here we are - back in good old U.S.A. on the last leg of our journey. Here in Maine, we traveled for a few hours with Joe Mollick as he made his round to the various churches he has opened. His ministry seems to be largely to the Catholic people and some of them even call him "Father Joe"....

Boston, Massachusetts: Thursday morning

Joe took us to Connecticut where we boarded a streamlined train and went to Boston. There we spent the night in a modern orphanage. John and Shirley Keach Williams are in charge of it and seem to have a good ministry there with orphans of all ages....

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania: Thursday afternoon

The jet landed at the Philadelphia Airport and so on our way to Lancaster we stopped at the new Osteopathic Hospital to talk with Margaret Uhler. She hasn't changed her name yet, but she did finally finish school. She's teaching nursing now, you know. We found her hunting for a vein to get a pint of blood or give some blood or something....

Lancaster School of the Bible: Home again.

That was an interesting trip to say the least. Our prayer is that each alumnus of the school will continue to do the Lord's will.

Class Song- Follow Me

Class Verse-Genesis 24:27b

We, the members of the Junior class, have chosen as our class verse, Genesis 24:27b, which reads, "I being in the way, the Lord led me." Our class song, "Follow Me," has the same thought. We look back to the time when the Lord led us to LSB. Each of us can say "I being in the way, the Lord led me," to Bible School. The Lord has led us here, has kept us here, and has supplied our needs as He has promised in Philippians 4:19. We have learned much from God's Word, but not only do we sit and listen, but we have the privilege of going out on ministries which give us excellent practical experience. Our purpose is not merely to study and acquire knowledge but to apply spiritual truths to our own lives so that we may be well balanced Christians fit for our Lord's service.

"Teach Me Lord To Wait"

"They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint," (Isaiah 40:31).

Teach us Lord to wait!

We, the Sophomore class here at Lancaster School of the Bible have chosen Isaiah 40:31 for our class verse and song in this year, 1960-61.

As a class, as well as individuals, we continue to learn to wait upon the Lord for His perfect will. To bring glory to His name is our goal.

Won't you pray for us as we enter into the summer ministries He has prepared for us?

The faithfulness of Jesus is beyond human understanding and can only be expressed as we say: "We love Him."

CHRISTIAN

Practical experience is a very essential part in the training of students at L. S. B. What better way is there to learn than by doing, so here at L. S. B. students are given the opportunity to put into practice that which they have learned in the classroom.

Weekly Christian assignments contribute to the student's becoming "thoroughly furnished unto all good works." All Christian assignment opportunities originate in the Christian Service Department under the direction of Rev. Nolan Balman.

The settings for these Christian assignments vary greatly. One may visit a home to find a student conducting a Good News

Club. The school may be the setting for Youth for Christ Clubs. A home for the aged, the Shelter Home for girls, a Children's Hospital all may find L. S. B. students on the scene presenting the wonderful Gospel message.

Opportunities to preach in youth rallies and churches and to teach Sunday School are also made available to others. Those who are musically talented are given many opportunities to take part in church services and youth groups.

Truly we as students are filled with thanks to God as we think of the many valuable lessons we have learned through our practical Christian assignments.

THE NEW

LIFE HOUR

As you dial 1390 on your radio on Saturday evening at 6:30, you will hear the L. S. B. Ensemble singing

"My new life I owe to thee
Jesus, Lamb of Calvary
Sin was canceled on the tree
Jesus, blessed Jesus."

Yes, It is time for another New Life Hour presented by Lancaster School of the Bible.

Testimonies telling of God's goodness and faithfulness are given by students in word and song. Special music is used by others to testify of God's greatness.

Messages filled with challenging truths, encouragement and blessing by our President bring the program to a perfect climax.

STUDENT JOBS

Dorm Kitchen Help

What is work? Just question the students and they will tell you what it means to work. They will tell you also that it's worth it all, for through part-time jobs it is possible for them to attend LSB. The long hours are hard oftentimes, but students realize a sacrifice has to be made in order to prepare for the work the Lord is calling them to do. Many students appreciate the Reverend Nolan Balman's efforts in securing part-time positions which they could not otherwise obtain. The students who do work can truly say, they "can do all things through Christ," the Great Strengthener.

F.M.F.

Every Monday morning during chapel period Foreign Missions Fellowship meets. Nearly every week a missionary is on the scene presenting his field and giving us all a wider vision into the needs of the people the world over.

The objective of F.M.F. is to improve the students' relationship with missions. As the mission fields are presented by the various visiting missionaries, the students are challenged to have a definite part in reaching the lost through prayer. Opportunity is given to the students to pray for the missionaries and their particular needs for once a month the students are divided into prayer groups. Each student chooses the group in which he is interested and intercedes for missionaries and the souls without Christ in that particular area. The prayer groups are: North American, South and Central American, Asian, African, European, and the Jewish prayer group.

As we take part in F.M.F. chapel, we are filled with the desire to see God's will for us. Truly we want to be ready and able servants for Him wherever He may choose to lead us.

Foreign Mission Fellowship has definitely given us a wider vision and a deeper burden for souls without Christ.

Although much labor and many long hours are required in getting a yearbook ready for the press, it truly has been a wonderful experience in the Lord's work. Over and over again we realize that it is God Who has given us the wisdom, strength and ability needed to complete this work.

Ideas, layouts, the steady rhythm of a typewriter as articles are composed, the click of cameras as pictures are taken, the securing of ads are all familiar to students working on the Ichthus Staff.

As students work together, each contributing that which he has done, the Ichthus begins to take form. We can say that the fellowship which we have had as we worked on the yearbook was wonderful, and will help us to remember our experiences for a long time.

We are filled with thanks to God for all the help that He has given us, "To God be the glory," for it is He Who has enabled us to complete this project.

As we present this book to you, we trust that each of you will be richly blessed.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is the voice of the student body at L.S.B. The Student Council is a tie between the administration and the students.

Representatives are chosen from each class to become members of this organization. Being a student council member brings much responsibility, for he must set an example before his classmates.

The Student Council meets every Friday, and is presided over by the president, a member of the Senior class. Problems which students may have may be brought to the Student Council representative, and then will be discussed in order to find the solution to the problem.

The planning of social and recreational activities is also the responsibility of the Student Council.

The desire of the Student Council of L.S.B. is to make the school a light house for the Lord in this community.

Concert Ensemble

Practice Session 277

ENSEMBLE

"Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord. Truly all of our hearts should be filled with a joyful song to the Lord for His wonderful gift of salvation. Those who are especially gifted in the field of music are given opportunity of expressing the song in their hearts as they sing with the I. T. S. Ensemble.

Songs of praise, songs of thanksgiving, songs which challenge the heart are all part of the annual Spring Concert given by the school ensemble. Much practice is necessary before the numbers are presented at the concert. The songs which are sung truly prove to be a blessing and challenge to all those who hear as well as to those taking part. As the ensemble sings, hearts and minds are turned to God.

The ministry of the Ensemble is valuable, for it is their opportunity and privilege to present the Gospel message in song.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association of the Lancaster School of the Bible and School of Theology was organized by members of the graduating class of 1949 in June of that year.

The purpose of the organization is five fold:

1. To continue the Christian fellowship with one another.
2. To maintain strict adherence to the present doctrinal basis in the school, and remonstrate in love, but with all firmness, any deviation from the original doctrinal basis by either a teacher or member of the Board of Trustees.
3. To definitely aid the School through the ministry of prayer and giving.
4. To share spiritual helps with the members of the Association.

5. To establish and maintain further contact through a quarterly publication, "The Alumni Newsletter."

Among its activities is an annual banquet (Alumni-Senior) held in the closing week of School. Later in the summer the Alumni hold a picnic at Buchmiller Park.

The Association feels bound to the School in a special way that goes beyond the spirit of loyalty. We are thankful to the School that has trained us and taught us to believe the Bible as the inspired Word of God from which there is no appeal. In view of this we are conscious of a particular obligation to the School in this day and age of unbelief. That obligation is to pray, work, and give, so that others may have the same faithful instruction as we.

LADIES AUXILIARY

Greetings from the Ladies Auxiliary of LSH! Here we are wanting to chat with you for just a few minutes.

Since our organization in 1955 we have tried, in some small way, to serve our precious Lord through serving the school. We have done a number of things in the past which have already been mentioned so we will not repeat. Our real purpose is to bring honor and glory to God - not any praise to ourselves.

I just praise and thank God for each lady of the Auxiliary. How willing and faithful each one has been "swimming through" every time we have been asked to do something.

Our principal emphasis is still prayer - daily - for the school in all its aspects - students, faculty, staff, finances and generally.

Now I want to extend to all ladies who are friends of LSH, an invitation to join with us as we meet the third Wednesday of each month - September through June - at 1:30 P. M. in the girls' dormitory.

Hear ye! Hear ye! Another edition of the Scroll is on campus. You might ask, "What is the Scroll?" The Scroll is a new addition to LSB life. This little newspaper contains the happenings of each month around the LSB campus.

Newsy news, chattery chatter, and many items of school interest are put together to make up the Scroll. Those who are on the Scroll Staff, certainly merit a round of applause for the good job which is being done. How we should appreciate the effort put forth by those who make this paper possible.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

Literature Table

Each year students with eager anticipation look forward to the Annual Missionary Conference held at Calvary Independent Church.

What a time of blessing it is for us students as we attend the morning and evening sessions of the Conference. Listening to the missionaries present their fields and the needs of the people challenges our hearts to seek God, asking Him where He would have us to go. Personal interviews with missionaries, who are working in fields in which we are interested, give us new vision into the need for more laborers.

Through the week as we listen to the speakers, our hearts are filled once again with the desire to proclaim the Gospel wherever we may be, for our mission field is wherever there is a heart without Christ.

THURSDAY NIGHT BIBLE CONFERENCE

What is taking place on the LSB campus Thursday nights? It's the Weekly Bible Conference. You may ask the question, how did these conferences begin? Many times evening school students found it hard to maintain their jobs and attend classes at night, thus they would discontinue their studies. Then too why should people be deprived of winter conferences? Bible conferences fill the summer months, but as autumn draws nigh, the conference grounds become deserted. With this thought in mind, LSB came to the rescue. The school, seeing the needs of the surrounding communities, went into action by starting the Thursday night Bible Conferences.

The evening is begun with Prophetic studies presented by Rev. Clarence Lefever. Following this session comes the presentation of the International Sunday School Lesson taught by either Rev. Randolph or Mr. Pearson. This is of great value to many who are now serving the Lord as Sunday School teachers. Those attending, find their minds at ease, for there are no exams, and no money problems, for it is tuition free. An offering is received to meet the expense. An average of 85 attend. So if you want a real blessing, be sure to come to the LSB campus every Thursday evening at 7:45.

of L S B

EVENING SCHOOL

Mr. Fred Pearson, Director

Every Monday and Tuesday evening the L. S. B. campus is filled with life, for Evening School meets on these two nights. Evening School, as well as Day School, has experienced much growth since its beginning in 1934.

Evening School is truly the answer to the prayers of men and women who find it impossible to attend Day School, but desire to be better prepared to serve the Lord. These men and women love the Lord and seek to do His will. Their love for the Lord is shown in their willingness to study, even after a hard day's work.

Evening School students come from all walks of life. Business men, housewives, Sunday School teachers and others all gather together to study so that their ministry for the Lord will be more effective.

Many of the teachers in the Evening School are from the Day School faculty, and all are well qualified in their specific fields.

An Evening School Diploma as well as an Evangelical Teacher Training Association Certificate is granted to all who complete the required course of studies.

We can be filled with thanksgiving and praise to the Lord for the ministry of our Evening School.

CHARLES E. JONES, Mgr.,
MUTUAL OF NEW YORK
Harrisburg, Penna.

My favorite question to those I come in contact with is, "What is the most important thing that ever happened in your life?" I found that life holds many important events, but in my own life Jesus Christ is not only the most important thing in my life but HE IS MY LIFE. I never really lived until I admitted to God that I needed the Lord Jesus Christ to forgive my sin and begin a new life within me. When I invited the Lord Jesus into my life, I was born again and began my everlasting life that moment. I received an Eternal Life Insurance policy which pays a dividend every day and can never lapse. My name is written in the company ledger called the Book of Life and can never be erased. How marvelous, how wonderful is our life in Him! Could anything in life compare?
